

Curriculum Vitae Joachim Löw

Personal Data

Date of birth	3 February 1960
Place of birth	Schönau (Black Forest)
Legal status	married
Residence	Freiburg im Breisgau
Profession	Coach of the German national football team

Football career

1977–1978	TuS Schönau 1896/FC Schönau
1978–1980	FC Freiburg
1980–1981	VfB Stuttgart
1981–1982	Eintracht Frankfurt
1982–1984	SC Freiburg
1984–1985	Karlsruher SC
1985–1989	SC Freiburg
1989–1992	FC Schaffhausen
1992–1994	FC Winterthur
1994–1995	FC Frauenfeld (coach)

Success as an active football player

- 4 U21 international matches
- 52 German premier league matches (7 goals)
- 252 matches in the second German football league (81 goals)

Coach career

1995–1998	Assistant, interim, head coach of VfB Stuttgart
1998–1999	Fenerbahce SK Istanbul
1999–2000	Karlsruher SC
2000–2001	Adanaspor AS
2001–2002	FC Tirol Innsbruck
2003–2004	FK Austria Wien
2004–2006	Assistant coach to Jürgen Klinsmann, German national team
since 2006	Coach of the German national football team

Success as a coach

German premier league cup (1997 with VfB Stuttgart)
Supercup winner (1998 with Fenerbahce SK Istanbul)
Austrian champion (2002 with FC Tirol Innsbruck)
3rd rank in the 2006 World Championship in Germany

Commitment

since 2000	Vice President of the foundation “Jugendfußball“, which operates an Internet portal for young football fans ( www.fussball21.de ) and cooperates in international street soccer projects, among others
since 2006	Trainer of the DaimlerChrysler Junior Cup, one of the most important cups for junior professionals
since 2007	Partner of METRO Group’s “Good for You - Initiative for Nutrition + Exercise” ( www.gut-fuer-dich.info ) with the goal to motivate people in Germany to adopt a healthier and more active lifestyle

Status: 1. March 2007